

Badminton England Photography / Video Rules

Anyone wishing to photograph / video must abide by the following:

- Individuals that do not want to be photographed//filmed can be identified by their wrist band.
- Photographs and images must reflect the positive aspects of playing and enjoying badminton and players will be suitably attired.
- Filming should only take place to the side or back of the court (dependent on access) and permission should be sought from the coach/parents of all players involved. Matches shall not be filmed if any one coach/parent objects to filming of their player.
- Don't share or publish images/videos from the tournament online unless you have requested their permission.

Badminton England Photography / Video Rules

Anyone wishing to photograph / video must abide by the following:

- Individuals that do not want to be photographed//filmed can be identified by their wrist band.
- Photographs and images must reflect the positive aspects of playing and enjoying badminton and players will be suitably attired.
- Filming should only take place to the side or back of the court (dependent on access) and permission should be sought from the coach/parents of all players involved. Matches shall not be filmed if any one coach/parent objects to filming of their player.
- Don't share or publish images/videos from the tournament online unless you have requested their permission.